

Job Title: Structural Ironworker
Reports To: Foreman

Starting Salary: $17.00
Job Status: Full Time

Position Summary

The Ironworker is responsible for raising, placing and uniting girders, columns, and other structural steel members to form completed structures.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

- Unload and lift steel and materials from trucks.
- Set up hoisting equipment for raising and placing structural steel members.
- Signal workers operating hoisting equipment to lift and place steel members by means of hand signals.
- Pull, push, or pry steel members into approximate position in order to bolt the pieces together.
- Must be able to permanently weld members or pieces into place.
- Spread, screw and/or weld metal sheets of steel for floor or roof decking and on sides of building.
- Responsible for adhering to all company safety and QA/QC programs and OSHA regulations.
- Performs non essential functions as needed.

Minimum Qualifications

Minimum of 2 years of experience a plus as an ironworker. Must have all required hand tools. Must be able to read and/or comprehend company policies. Able to certify as welder to AWS D1.1 sect. IV in SMAW method.

Physical Demands

Must be able to lift in excess of 100 pounds frequently on the job. Must be able to climb in excess of 300 feet. Excessive amounts of bending, stooping, carrying, pushing and pulling of weights up to 100 pounds. Must be able to tolerate loud noises and a dusty work environment. Must be able to be around high voltage electromagnetic fields. Must be able to tolerate extreme temperatures.