

Schueck Steel • Prospect Steel • Custom Metals
L-Con Constructors • Heritage Links

Sheeter

Job Title: Sheeter
Reports To: Foreman

Starting Salary: $14-
$15 DOE
Job Status: Full Time

Position Summary:

A Sheeter is responsible for sheeting buildings and roofs.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

- Spreads screws and/or welds metal sheets of steel for floor or roof decking and on sides of buildings.
- Flash and trim buildings with reasonable ease.
- Lay out sheeting for cutting to appropriate sizes.
- Handle sheets on the ground and secure sheets on walls and roof.
- Performs the functions as a Structural Ironworker.
- Responsible for adhering to the company safety and QA/QC programs, as well as OSHA rules and regulations.
- Use electrical tools such as screw guns, nibblers, and shears to secure sheets on buildings and roofs.
- Performs non essential duties as needed.

Minimum Qualifications:

Minimum of two years of experience as a sheeter a plus. Must have a tape measure, vise grips, crescent wrenches (10 and 12"), tin snip (left/right) and a tool belt.

Physical Demands:

Must be able to lift in excess of 100 pounds frequently. Must be able to climb in excess of 300 feet. Must be able to pull own weight to climb stairs, ladders, etc. Must be able to tolerate extreme temperatures. Frequent amounts of bending, stooping, lifting, carrying, pushing and pulling. Must be able to tolerate loud noises. Must be able to work in a dusty environment and around high voltage electromagnetic fields.